25X1A9a of [REDACTED]

25X1A9a

25X1A9a 1. [REDACTED] advised me 30 October that he had discussed with [REDACTED] the disposition of the unpaid compensation of [REDACTED] 25X1A9a
25X1A9a [REDACTED] As you probably know, the law stipulates that, in the absence of surviving spouse or a specific designation of beneficiary, such compensation shall be divided equally between the natural parents of the deceased. [REDACTED] was unmarried and designated no specific beneficiary.

25X1A9a 2. [REDACTED] advised George that a reasonable effort should be made to determine the whereabouts of [REDACTED] natural father. George has requested that I ask you to contact [REDACTED] 25X1A9a
25X1A9a half-sister, and see if she can furnish any additional information regarding the whereabouts of [REDACTED] father. 25X9A6

25X1A9a 3. [REDACTED] further advised George he saw no reason why our Finance Section could not disburse at this time one-half of the unpaid compensation to [REDACTED] mother. The other half of the unpaid compensation will be held in escrow by Finance until additional effort has been made toward locating the father.
